

YARN AND GLUE

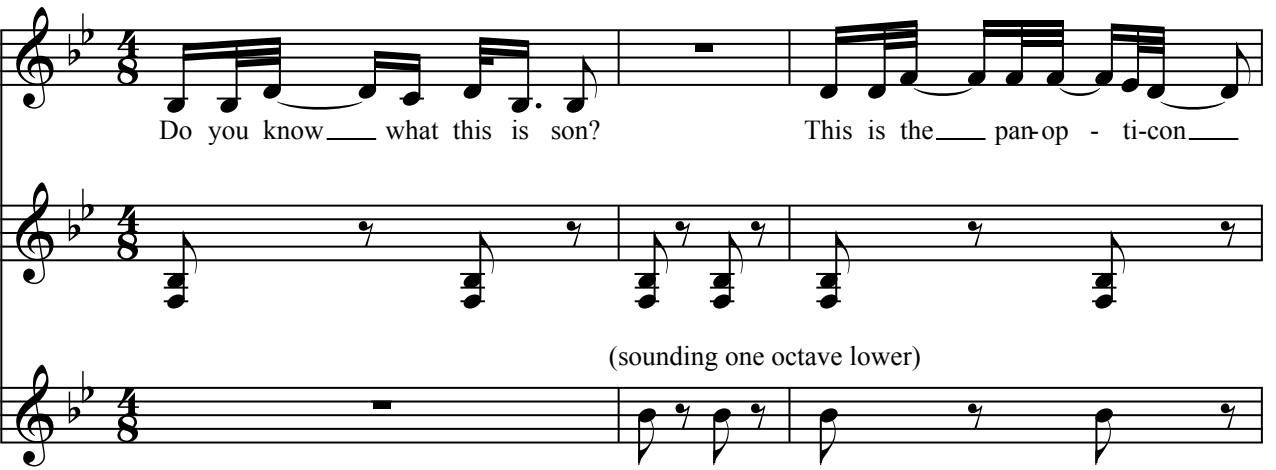

FROM "YARN AND GLUE"

JOANNA NEWSOM
TRANS. SCOTT HORJINGTON

Do you know ___ what this is son? This is the ___ pan-op - ti-con ___

Xylophone

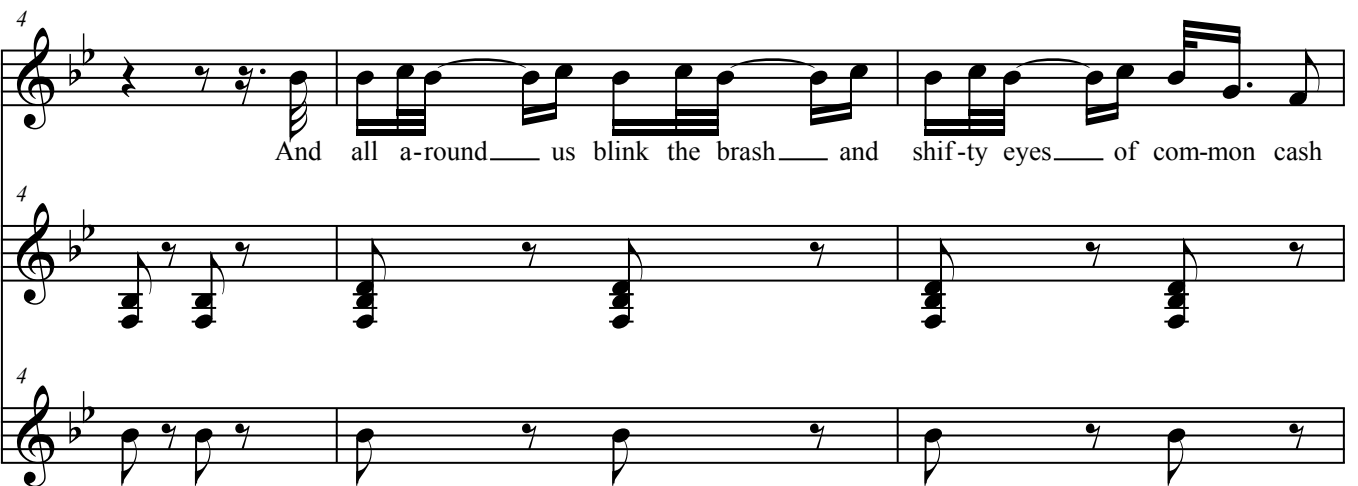

Dulcimer (sounding one octave lower)

4 And all a-round ___ us blink the brash ___ and shif-ty eyes ___ of com-mon cash

Xyl.

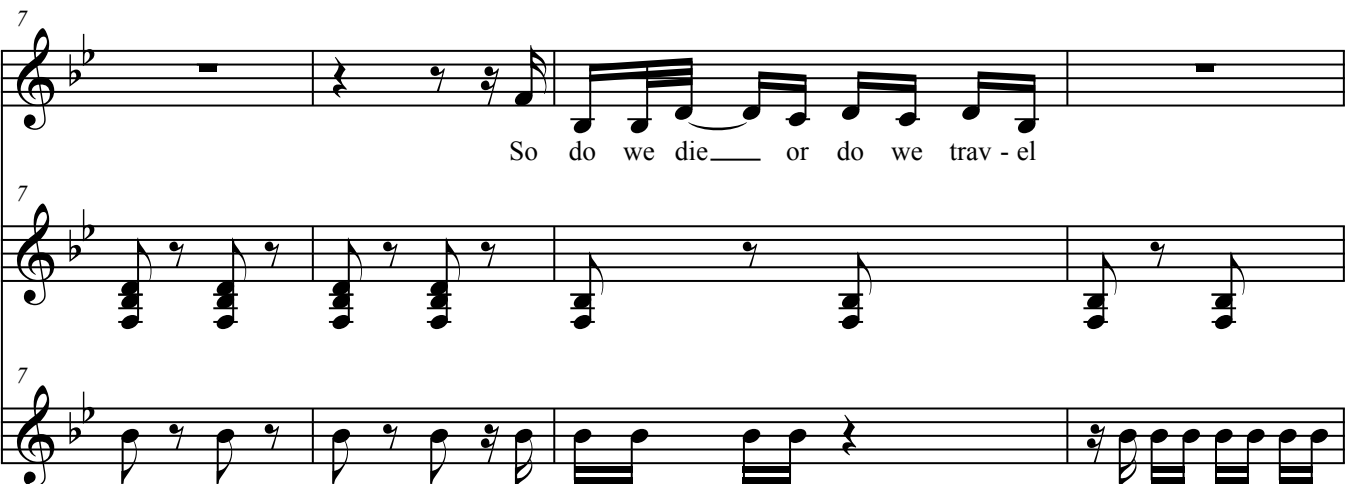

Dul.

7 So do we die ___ or do we trav - el

Xyl.

Dul.

11

Down the path___ by which one dab-les___ In the arts___ of an-te-dil - u -

Xyl.

Dul. ad lib. F major chord

14

vian crafts ___ with yarn___ and glue? So ga-ther twi-light to your breast

Xyl.

Dul.

18

And couch the rab - ble rous-er's nest And Xyl.

Dul.

21

we will take a day of rest and we will all be heav-en blessed

Xyl.

Dul.

24

And we will ga - ther 'round to dine And Xyl.

Dul.

27

pass the time with wick-ed rhymes And

Xyl.

Dul.

29

toast in dan-de-li - on wines to hear their mell-i - flous chimes

Xyl.

Dul.

31

We toast the fal - low fur - rows that we sow

Xyl.

Dul.

33

And we toast the mon - ies that we owe, owe, owe

Xyl.

Dul.

35

— And we toast the cred-i-tors we dai-ly face who top-ple down with

Xyl.

Dul.

37

grue-some grace And we toast the 'rist-o-crats with blood of blue

Xyl.

Dul.

39

'cause we know that our coll-ars are that col-or too

Xyl.

Dul.

41

And we toast the art - i - sans of an - te - di - lu - vi - an craf - s with Xyl.

Dul.

43

yarn and glue We do, we do

Xyl.

Dul.