

Vakety Sax - E^b Alto Sax

Boots Randolph

The image shows a handwritten musical score for E^b Alto Saxophone. It consists of ten staves of music, all in treble clef and key signature of two sharps (D major). The music is written in a rhythmic style characteristic of early jazz, with many eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. There are several annotations in the score:

- Staff 1: A circled '2' above the first measure. An arrow points to a note with the label 'octave key'.
- Staff 2: Similar rhythmic patterns.
- Staff 3: An arrow points to a note with the label '1st Fin or'.
- Staff 4: Similar rhythmic patterns.
- Staff 5: An arrow points to a note with the label 'use octave key'.
- Staff 6: An arrow points to a note with the label 'octave key'.
- Staff 7: Similar rhythmic patterns.
- Staff 8: An arrow points to a note with the label 'octave key'.
- Staff 9: Similar rhythmic patterns.
- Staff 10: Similar rhythmic patterns.
